STATE TREASURER

Lloyd Swartwout

"Our Father of Horseshoe Pitching"

Lloyd Swartwout pitched in horseshoe competition for the first time as a junior in high school in 1928.

He pitched for a number of years after that before he decided to try his pitching skills in the game of baseball. Pitching baseball came just as easy to Lloyd as horseshoe pitching had. In 1956, the year of Aberdeen's 75th Jubilee, Lloyd started pitching shoes again.

That was all the encouragement Lloyd needed. If ever there was a "founding Father of horseshoes in this area" Lloyd Swartwout would take the honors.

Lloyd was instrumental in building the horseshoe courts in Aberdeen and organizing the club. He even drew up the blue prints on the lighted courts.

Fellow horseshoe pitchers of Lloyd's recall: "Lloyd would talk anyone out of their last bit of concrete so he could have it to pour another section of cement for the horseshoe courts."

Over the years, Lloyd was the South Dakota State Horseshoe Pitching Champion three times. He also served as president of the South Dakota Horseshoe Pitcher Association for seven years.

Lloyd received awards for many hours of time and energy spent to improve the sport of horseshoe. Under his leadership, the sport of horseshoe grew from a few players to nearly 100 contestants at State Horseshoe Tournaments.

Lloyd passed away in 1974. He is survived by his wife, Florence, who resides in Aberdeen and a son, Kermit and family from Denver.

Few pitchers have contributed and dedicated more of themselves to the game of horseshoes than Lloyd.

He was an avid and colorful horseshoe pitching enthusiast. He will long be remembered by all his fellow horseshoe pitchers.

Hall-of-Fame
Recipient

Marvin “Snowball” Westin

Marvin “Snowball” Westin wins the 1982 South Dakota Horseshoe Pitchers Hall of Fame Award.

Winning is important to everyone, even “Snowball”, but just being able to play the game keeps “Snowball” going. You see, “Snowball” is legally blind.....has been since 1976. That hasn’t stopped “Snowball” in the least.

From day one, “Snowball” has had his sports. “If it weren’t for my sports I’d go nuts.”

“Snowball” always has been involved in sports. Even today, he bowls, golfs (his lifetime passion) and pitchs horseshoes, despite his blindness.

The spirit of competition is strong in “Snowball”.

“It (his blindness) is not so bad, even if it could go completely some day. There are a lot of people worse off than me,” “Snowball” said.

“Snowball” has been participating in state horseshoe tournaments for over 20 years. He won the Class C Championship in 1962 on his first trip.

“I’d much rather pitch at night now, with the stakes painted white, but you have to compete when the event is scheduled.

Sun shining into the sides of “Snowball’s” eyes is the worst for him. It takes away what little sight he has.

He wears welding goggles over his regular dark glasses when he’s pitching shoes.

PERSONAL BIOGRAPHY

Marvin “Snowball” Westin and his wife, Norma, are natives of the Alcester area. He and Norma have two daughters, Marjorie and Janice. Janice is married and has two children.

“Snowball” was postmaster in Alcester for nearly 30 years. He served in the Pacific Theater, in World War II.

He is actively involved in the VFW, community affairs, golfing, bowling and horseshoe pitching.

In past years, “Snowball” served on the State Horseshoe Board of Directors. He also served as president of the Sioux Valley League Horseshoe Club for several years. He was also co-manager of the Alcester team.

“Snowball” is an inspiration to all who know him.

CONGRATULATIONS “SNOWBALL”!
