I wish to Thank everyone who came to our state tournament. Thanks to those who pitched, helped get things ready, kept score, and those who helped with the records and results.

The tournament went real well. Our weather was a little rainy on Saturday morning, but all in all it turned out O.K. with Sunday being a perfect day.

Our horseshoe pitchers are getting less and less, and it makes one wonder why, some are from death, but what is the reason why an athlete. Are we doing something wrong?

Let's all try and do our best to entreat more people to come out and pitch, including the younger generation.

So Thanks Again everyone.

Hope with God's will, we will see you all in Aberdeen in 1996

Gertrude De Zeeuw - President

P.S. He also would like to say a big "Thank You" for giving us the opportunity of being put into the Hall of Fame. It was a great surprise. Thank you again

Rudy and Gertrude De Zeeuw
